Catalyst Telecom (Greenville, SC) is a value-added distributor of voice, video, mobility, network security, and data equipment. Its annual channel conference brings together strategic communications solution partners such as Avaya and NACR, offering them informational sessions and opportunities to network with other industry professionals.

A frequent past winner at the Catalyst conference, NACR was honored again this year as Catalyst's Enterprise Business Partner of the Year. Jay Kamin, Vice President of Operations at NACR, was on hand at the conference to accept the award on the company's behalf.

As one of the largest Avaya channel partners worldwide, NACR (www.nacr.com) is the leading independent integrator of best-in-class communications, collaboration, and customer interaction solutions. The company delivers comprehensive sales, consultative, training, and technical support, as well as managed services, remote diagnostics and resolution, maintenance, refurbishment, and repairs.

"Everyone here at NACR is grateful to be recognized and thankful for the great working relationship we have with Catalyst Telecom," according to John Behnken, National Vice President of NACR. "It is partnerships like this, along with the hard work and dedication of the NACR team, that allow us to provide our customers with comprehensive solutions and the best value for their communications investments."

NACR works closely with Avaya, Catalyst, and other technology innovators to integrate the latest hardware, software, and applications into end-to-end multivendor solutions for diverse markets including enterprise, small and mid-size business, government, education, and healthcare. In addition, the comprehensive NACR services portfolio offers a highly trained, certified team of engineers and technicians to provide expert, ongoing support for all the solutions the company delivers.
