

ConvergeOne Welcomes New CFO

Jeffrey Nachbor Joins Team at Leading Solutions Integration Company

EAGAN, Minn., Sept. 17, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- ConvergeOne, a leading integrator of best-in-class communications technology and data solutions, is pleased to welcome Jeffrey Nachbor as its new Chief Financial Officer. John McKenna, CEO and Chairman of the company, made the announcement yesterday.

"We're excited to welcome Jeff to the ConvergeOne team," said McKenna. "His years of experience, passion for organizational development, and record of achievement at both large multinational companies and smaller entrepreneurial ventures make him a tremendous asset to our organization and an important part of our strategic planning."

With operating companies and locations across the United States, ConvergeOne offers one source for end-to-end solutions, from initial design and in-market implementation through ongoing consultation, management, and technical support across the spectrum of telephony, data, contact center solutions, and unified communications (UC). The company has built a reputation as an expert in guiding businesses as they migrate from traditional standalone systems to fully integrated communications networks.

As CFO of ConvergeOne, Nachbor is responsible for managing all aspects of financial planning, assessment, and reporting, including supervising all finance and accounting operations; quantifying key drivers of financial performance; and managing working relationships with equity partners and banks. He will be based at ConvergeOne headquarters in Eagan, MN.

"ConvergeOne is a company known for its entrepreneurial spirit and its commitment to empowering employees to deliver personalized support and added value to customers," said Nachbor. "That's why I am so pleased to be part of the ConvergeOne team and to have the opportunity to positively impact the future of the company, its employees, and its customers."

Nachbor has more than 25 years of experience as a senior level executive. He comes to ConvergeOne from Leap Wireless, where as Senior Vice President of Operational Finance and Chief Accounting Officer, he helped to grow the business, double revenue, and increase free cash flow by 240% while reducing costs by 30%. His previous positions include Senior Vice President of Finance and Controller at H&R Block, CFO and Treasurer at Sharper Image Corporation, and Senior Vice President and Corporate Controller at Staples, Inc., among others. A CPA, he earned his undergraduate degree at Old Dominion University and his MBA in finance at the University of Kansas.
