"At NACR, we're grateful for the opportunity to serve as a trusted advisor to our customers — someone they count on to deliver an integrated solution that improves communication, collaboration, and value for their business," said John F. Lyons, President and CEO of NACR. "We owe our success to the hard work and dedication of our team, the partners who work with us to enhance and complement our offers, and the customers who see us as their partner in choosing the very best solution for their needs."

NACR is a leading global integrator of best-in-class communications solutions and services, and a trusted advisor to more than 5,500 customers ranging from small businesses to FORTUNE® 100 and global enterprises. The company works closely with other technology innovators to integrate best-of-breed hardware, software, applications, and services into end-to-end multivendor solutions for diverse markets.

Founded in 1993 with a handful of employees, NACR today is one of the world's largest Avaya channel partners and has more than 900 employees serving customers from locations throughout the United States. In addition, NACR is a designated U.S. Microsoft National Systems Integrator (NSI) with advanced gold competency in unified communication (UC).

As one of the ConvergeOne companies — some of the premier providers of technology integration and consulting services in the United States — NACR has grown its capabilities and broadened its portfolio through strategic acquisitions, including the recent integration of G3 Technology Partners.

In addition, under the Ovation Managed Services portfolio, NACR provides comprehensive support and proactive services for multivendor environments. The company currently manages more than 2 million voice ports, with three state-of-the-art Network Operations Centers (NOCs) providing 24x7x365 monitoring and maintenance support.
