

Uptivity Named NACR Partner of the Year for 2015

NACR Announced Award at National Sales Conference

EAGAN, Minn., March 26, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Technology solutions expert NACR is pleased to announce that Uptivity has been named Partner of the Year for 2015. The award was revealed during NACR's annual conference, attended by the company's sales professionals, executives, and technical support teams, as well as its partners.

NACR, a ConvergeOne company, is a leading global provider of best-in-class communications solutions and services, and a trusted advisor to more than 5,500 customers ranging from small businesses to Fortune® 100 and global enterprises. The company works closely with other technology partners to integrate the latest hardware, software, and applications into end-to-end solutions for diverse markets.

Uptivity is a leading provider of contact center and workforce optimization (WFO) solutions, and one of only a handful of companies to qualify for NACR Elite Partner status. As a provider of innovative WFO, call recording, speech analytics, coaching/training, and performance management solutions, Uptivity is an expert in helping businesses enhance employee performance, increase customer satisfaction, and drive strategic goals. In addition, like NACR, Uptivity offers solution customization and personalized support.

"We congratulate the team for its outstanding achievements and are proud to be associated with Uptivity," said Paul Maier, President of ConvergeOne Solutions and Senior Vice President of Product Technology at NACR, who presented the award at the conference. "In addition to realizing extraordinary revenue growth, Uptivity offers a strong feature set and ease of deployment, creating significant value for our customers. Uptivity's value along with its focus on customer satisfaction makes the company an important part of NACR's WFO solution portfolio and a valuable partner."

"Uptivity is honored to be NACR's Partner of the Year and excited to continue building on our long-term alliance — working together to deliver optimal technology, comprehensive support, and the best solution for each customer's specific business needs and communications environment," said Jon Dunham, Senior Vice President of Sales at Uptivity, who was on hand at the NACR conference to accept the award.
