

ConvergeOne Recognized by Palo Alto Networks as a NextWave Platinum Innovator

BLOOMINGTON, Minn., Sept. 14, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- ConvergeOne, a leading services-led technology solution provider of security, collaboration, cloud, and digital infrastructure solutions, today announced it has become a Palo Alto Networks NextWave Platinum Innovator. ConvergeOne joins a select group of channel partners who have met the Platinum Innovator performance, capabilities, and business requirements of the Palo Alto Networks NextWave Channel Partner Program.

"ConvergeOne has seen tremendous growth with its Palo Alto Networks partnership and appreciates the recognition in becoming a Platinum Innovator partner," said Chris Ripkey, Cybersecurity National Practice Leader, ConvergeOne. "As a leading cloud transformational solution provider, our customers look to ConvergeOne as the trusted expert in securing their environments. We are proud to partner with Palo Alto Networks and help organizations leverage market-leading security solutions."

"NextWave partners are instrumental in delivering world-class cyber security expertise and offers backed by Palo Alto Networks, to customers everywhere," said Karl Soderlund, SVP of Worldwide Channel Sales at Palo Alto Networks. "As a NextWave Platinum Innovator, ConvergeOne has demonstrated extensive product-specific expertise and technology specialization and differentiation, to bring customers critical, high-value security offers powered by Palo Alto Networks."

The NextWave Partner Program empowers more than 65,000 partners with Palo Alto Networks' comprehensive capabilities to successfully enable digital transformation for our customers. Partners build their security expertise through specialization, integrate cybersecurity offerings into hybrid cloud architectures, optimize their security postures, and secure the network, endpoint, and cloud from cyberattacks. These capabilities improve security outcomes and the customer experience. As such, partners' achievements in the program are proactively monitored and annually assessed.
